Doomben Race 1 - 1110m

Today it's hard to bet early when the weather is so unsettled - Betting mostly from the yard when we know whats going on. Very even race here. BOOM TORQUE is the up and comer who went out on a high but is only small. FUMIKO was disappointing when 2up last time - give start again here. JAMELDI and TANKER will get nice runs here. Tempo: Average speed - Suits Leaders & Handy Runners

2 BOOM TORQUE

1 JAMELDI

5 TANKER

9 FUMIKO

Doomben Race 2 - 1200m

WOLFGANG is hard to go past here. He should lead and be strong at the finish. A lot of these are suspect at the trip, including the 2nd fav DEFIANT BOOM going on his latest trial. Tempo: Average speed - Suits Leaders & Handy Runners

1 WOLFGANG

2 DEFIANT BOOM

Doomben Race 3 - 1615m

Not a lot of speed on here. DRIVE A DEEL went good two starts back then got a black eye last time - lead here and return to form. EAGLEMONT rated highly in Syd last time but very questionable so price unders. AUSSIE NUGGET attacked the line against the sectionals and should be improved by the run, just needs to hold a position [SAVER] Tempo: Slow to Fair speed - Suits Leaders & Handy Runners

1u bsp - #2 AUSSIE NUGGET $3.20

1u fixed - #6 DRIVE A DEEL $5.00

6	DRIVE A DEEL
2	AUSSIE NUGGET
3	EAGLEMONT

Doomben Race 4 - 1050m

If the track stays in the Dead range then EMPEROR will blow these away at these weights. MR GALAZI is well in but can't win on his latest effort at the Sunshine Coast. I will be increasing the bet on EMPEROR if no rain. Tempo: Good Speed - Suits Handy Runners

1u fixed - #9 EMPEROR $2.00

9	EMPEROR
10	MR GALAZI
3	SMART IMAGE

Doomben Race 5 - 1350m

MIDNIGHT IN TOKYO gets BLKs first time here, so not sure how they will ride from half tricky gate. Not huge pressure here, so she can probably take it up, but will they risk over-racing? Has the best form for this, but 1350m still a little niggly at the really short odds. Pacific Atlantic should get the right run for Shinn. Doesn't want it too wet. Wetter the better for Count Da Beans, who went good 1st up before LS flop. Doomben is his go and he is capable of running on strongly here, particularly if rain has arrived. Tempo: Slow to Fair speed - Suits Leaders & Handy Runners

10	PACIFIC ATLANTIC
4	MIDNIGHT IN TOKYO
2	COUNT DA BEANS

Doomben Race 6 - 2020m

PRINCESS RHAENYS rates to beat these. Just a matter of where she can settle in the run behind what doesn't look an overly strong tempo. She went good last time after the winner stole a march. Just no spoil in the price for a horse that needs things to fall into place. QUALITY TIME is limited but looks like getting a good tempo set up here on speed with softer ground underfoot. Prefer him at Doomben. LOVE TAP is a query at the trip, but had excuses last time and can get a nice run on speed here. Tempo: Slow to Fair speed - Suits Leaders & Handy Runners

11	PRINCESS RHAENYS
6	QUALITY TIME
3	LOVE TAP

Doomben Race 7 - 1350m

Hard race. CHRYSOR won the Callander-Presnell after a few runs last preparation and multiple gear changes so whether it can produce that first up here is another question. Did trial strong through the line and the speed on will help. SHOW ME MERCY will be stuck on the fence but has alot of upside and loved its run last start. Those look the only chances just not sure about CIFRADO at 1350m. Tempo: Very Good spd - Suits Handy Midfield Runners

3	SHOW ME MERCY
2	CHRYSOR

Doomben Race 8 - 1200m

There looks very good pressure up front here. PARISAL has very good form for this level and trialled ok but I do think the gate is half sticky and can race keen so not sold fresh is best for her. COMRADE ROSA is rock hard fit, loves Doomben and gets the right run probably hard to beat. LADY LAGUNA was a good pipe opener at Randwick but will be buried on the fence somewhere with Schiller. JAYANTHI is the smoky after a good trial and we still don't know her ceiling. Tempo: Hot speed - Suits Handy Midfield Runners

1	COMRADE ROSA
16	JAYANTHI
2	PARISAL
4	LADY LAGUNA

Doomben Race 9 - 1350m

Good betting race here. ZOUSTYLE and THE FACE control the tempo up front just have worries on both at the distance at this level. TAMERLANE gets the drop on them after a good trial between runs and has solid runs in stronger races than this. Petrified of FREEDOM RALLY who keeps improving. The gate is tricky but they might ride him cold with the good speed and potentially come best part of the track and the wet is no issue on breeding. KA BLING hasn't had trial since Newcastle but can race keen and has a chink. STARTANTES will be there late with no weight on her back just not sure she can spot these a big headstart? Tempo: Average speed - Suits Leaders & Handy Runners

2u fixed - #4 TAMERLANE $4.40

1u bsp - #17 FREEDOM RALLY $5.50

4	TAMERLANE
17	FREEDOM RALLY
16	STARTANTES
6	ELEVEN ELEVEN

Doomben Race 10 - 1200m

NAVAS TWO went like a bomb at Ipswich and gets Shinn also just wants the rain to stay away. HATCHET has obviously improved this preparation off the trial and speed on will help. BEAUX RUMBLE and a few others will roll along in front. SELF INDULGENT can improve back to Doomben but needs the rain to stay away which seems unlikely. SAILORS SECRET went good at Eagle Farm resuming but this tougher. Hard to tip in this race with a few unknowns. Tempo: Very Good spd - Suits Handy Midfield Runners

6	HATCHET
9	BEAUX RUMBLE
13	CRAZY TRAIN
7	NAVAS TWO
